

THE CHRISTIAN FAITH—
ONE WORD AT A TIME:
INSEPARABLE

TEXT: ROMANS 8:35-39

³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ³⁶ As it is written:

"For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."

³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹ neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Think of a time when you were separated from someone—a parent, a child. What emotions did you feel?

Separation from someone you love can cause...

What things threaten to seemingly separate us from God?

Who / what shall separate us from God? And yet...

THE CHRISTIAN FAITH—ONE WORD AT A TIME: INSEPARABLE

TEXT: ROMANS 8:35-39

In all these things we are _____ than _____ Satan wants to use suffering to get us to...

When we look at the cross...

Because we are more than conquerors through Christ...

I am convinced that _____ can separate me from my God.

Therefore, when suffering enters my life, I will...

Though storms may gather and suffering enter my life, because of the love of my Savior, Jesus, I am convinced that I am INSEPARABLE from God and his faithful love for me.

NOTHING CAN SEPARATE ME FROM THE LOVE OF GOD THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS OUR LORD!
